

NOON EDITION

ONE CENT

ALD. KENNEDY TELLS OF DEATHS "BACK O' TH' YARDS"—JUDGE SCULLY UPHOLDS WOMEN AS ELECTION JUDGES — POLICE SHAKEUP NEAR

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 4, NO. 170

Chicago, Friday, April 16, 1915

398

END OF MORALS SQUAD PLAN OF THOMPSON

Mayor-Elect Will Ask Council to Curb Funkhouser's Power—Disgusted With Trapping of Women by Stool Pigeons.

Mayor-elect William Hale Thompson, who, as a private citizen, has had a splendid opportunity to watch the work of Major Funkhouser and his morals squad, has come out strong against the sort of work now being done by the second deputy's office.

Yesterday, on board his ship, the Kabekona, steaming down the Mississippi, the man from whom Chicago is expecting so much during the next four years in office, delivered himself quite forcefully on the subject of the morals squad.

His opinion may not exactly please the trust press and the professional reformers who have been urging Funkhouser and his gang of investigators on. But so far Thompson has shown no disposition to worry because the press raps him when he doesn't run "according to orders."

Thompson said that he was watched with growing anger the methods of Funkhouser's stool pigeons to obtain evidence against women of the underworld. He has watched while these men drunk with authority ran wild over the dark corners of the city throwing the city's money to the wind, and he has come to the conclusion that their's is the sort of work that doesn't dignify Chicago. So he's made up his mind to stop it.

When the new council convenes Thompson, who, with a majority of its members following his lead, will have an excellent chance to work with free hands, will ask that the power of the second deputy's office be curbed and that the control of vice